

Shared components: Two-way radiofrequency interface

01931

Smart systems&products / Smart climate control / Shared components / DIN devices

Two-way radiofrequency interface

Communication interface between two-way radiofrequency system and phone dialler, for DIN (60715 TH35) rail installation, occupies 3 17,5 mm modules

Product Status

13 - Out-of-date

Legal

Vimar reserves the right to change at any time and without notice the characteristics of the products reported. Installation should be carried out by qualified staff in compliance with the current regulations regarding the installation of electrical equipment in the country where the products are installed. For the terms of use of the information on the product info sheet see Conditions of Use.